Circle Times are used to introduce and review the concept, Bible verse, Bible story, and the ACTS prayer. (A prayer including Adoration, Confession, Thanksgiving, and Supplication related to the Bible truth they are learning.) Free play is not only enjoyable, but helps to replenish attention spans and prepared the children for more group listening later in the session. However, every session includes activities that you may choose from to use during free play time to add as much reinforcement as best suits your children. Each Hide 'n' Seek Kids session follows the same four-part format, as described here: PART 1: Getting Started A time to welcome the children to the class, enjoy free play, music, and/or a Bible verse game. PART 2: Opening Circle Time The children are gathered together for their primary teaching time. The Big Question and Bible truth (and related songs) are introduced. The Case Questions* are revealed, the Bible story told, then the Case Questions answered. PART 3: Free Play/Activity Time The children participate in free play and/or response activities. PART 4: Closing Circle Time The children gather together for a brief review of what they have learned and a closing prayer. Teachers give out take home sheets as children are dismissed. *As with the other two Praise Factory curriculums, Hide 'n' Seek Kids has a few detective-ish elements to it. The children help the teacher take out of the "Big Question Briefcase" each of the key concept signs. Each story is called "The Case of the ..." and comes with "Case Questions"; a listening assignment of questions about the story to be solved as they listen. These questions are especially good for use with three-year-olds or older preschoolers. Session Length The resources for each Hide 'n' Seek Kids session-- as described in the lesson plan--are designed for a 60 to 90 minutes session. However, they can be easily shaped for you to tailor them to fit a shorter or longer session.
