Small groups alternate to a different activity each lesson for variety. Each PFI session follows the same three-part format, as described here: PART 1: GETTING STARTED              A time to welcome the children to the class, introduce the class rules and the "Big Question and Answer" (and related songs) of the theological theme they are studying. PART 2: DIGGIN' DEEP DOWN              The Bible truth (and related songs) is introduced. The Case Questions* are revealed, the Bible story told, then the Case Questions answered. The teacher closes with an ACTS prayer (A prayer including Adoration, Confession, Thanksgiving, and Supplication related to the Bible truth they are learning.) PART 3: TAKING ACTION              The children participate in the response activities chosen for the day and (if desired), presenting what they've learned to each other or to parents at the end of the session. Teachers give out take home sheets as children are dismissed. *As with the other two Praise Factory curriculums, PFI has a few detective-ish elements to it. Each story is called "The Case of the ..." and comes with "Case Questions": a listening assignment of questions about the story to be solved as they listen. Session Length              The resources for each PFI session-- as described in the lesson plan--are designed for a 60 to 90 minutes session. However, they can be easily shaped for you to tailor them to fit a shorter or longer session.
PFI... AT A GLANCE <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Teaches the 16 Biblical (theological) themes used in all three Praise Factory curriculums, but in greater depth than in Hide 'n' Seek Kids or Deep Down Detectives. Each of these themes is presented as a "Big Question and Answer" and set to music.</li> <li>• Each theme is taught as a series of Bible truths that develop the theme. There are 104 Bible truths in all.</li> <li>• There is one Bible verse and three stories (an Old Testament, New Testament and Church History/Missions story) for each of the 104 Bible truths. All of the Bible verses are set to music, which can be a great aid in learning and remembering them.</li> <li>• Each of the three sessions for each Bible truth is jam-packed with activities. Use as few or as many as you want.</li> <li>• The multiple sessions give children the time they need to really learn each truth. The new stories and activities keep the learning fresh each session.</li> <li>• The curriculum for each Bible truth comes with a fully-scripted lesson plan, games, crafts, take-home sheets, and lots of music (with sign language).</li> <li>• The curriculum is flexible and is easily adaptable to many different teaching settings.</li> <li>• Both downloads and hard copies available.</li> </ul>	PFI SCOPE AND SEQUENCE <table border="1" style="width: 100%;"> <thead> <tr> <th style="width: 50%;">UNIT</th> <th style="width: 50%;">BIBLE TRUTHS TAUGHT</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td> Unit 1: The God Who Reveals Himself                      Q: How Can I Know What God Is Like?
