

At the Cross

Verse 2

Was it for crimes that I had done
He groaned upon the tree?
Amazing pity, grace unknown,
And love beyond degree!

Refrain

At the cross, at the cross where I first saw the light,
And the burden of my heart rolled away,
It was there by faith I received my sight,
And now I am happy all the day.

Verse 3

Well might the sun in darkness hide,
And shut his glories in,
When Christ the mighty Maker died,
For man, the creature's sin. Refrain

about this hymn:

Words: Isaac Watts Music: Ralph E. Hudson

Long ago, a man named Isaac Watts was thinking about this Bible truth, too. He wrote the words to a hymn called "At the Cross" We're going to learn a few verses from it.

Because we are all lawbreakers, we deserve God's eternal punishment. There will never be anything we can do to earn back eternal life with God. But at the cross where Jesus, the perfect law keeper gave up His life as the payment for all who would ever turn from their sins and trust in Him, that we can find forgiveness and eternal life. By His perfect sacrifice, all of "crimes" and "burdens" can be "rolled away" forever. What amazing love! What grace-what kindness that we never deserved! That Jesus, the very Son of God, through whom all things were made, would choose to come suffer and die on the cross to save sinful creatures like you and me. All who have Jesus as their Savior do have reason to be happy all the day, every day! There's is eternal life with God!

The LORD Looks Down

The LORD looks down from heaven,
On the human race,
To see if there is one who's wise,
One who seeks God.
But all have turned away;
All alike have become corrupt.
There is no one who does good,
No, not even one.
Psalm Fourteen, two and three.

about this Bible verse:

Words adapted from Psalm 14:2,3, HCSB Constance Dever © 2011

Adam and Eve were created with hearts that sought after God. They were perfect law keepers who were not corrupt and did not turn aside from God. But after they rebelled, they and all their children after them turned aside. Yes, the LORD sees everything and knows everything. He knows what is in each of our hearts. We all have sinful hearts and do sinful things. We have all become corrupt with sin. None of us seek after God on our own. But praise God for sending Jesus to be the Savior of sinners like us! Praise God for sending His Holy Spirit to work in our hearts! God gives us hope! He can do in us what we could never do for ourselves!

All We Like Sheep

All we like sheep have gone astray;
We have turned—every one—to his own way;
And the LORD has laid on him, on him,
The iniquity of us all,
The iniquity of us all.

All we like sheep have gone astray;
We have turned—every one—to his own way;
And the LORD has laid on him, on him,
The iniquity of us all,
The iniquity of us all.
Isaiah Fifty-three, verse six.

about this Bible verse:

Words adapted from Isaiah 53:6, ESV Constance Dever © 2012

Sheep are animals who need a shepherd to lead them and keep them safe. Without a shepherd, they easily wander away on their own, getting lost, getting hurt or even getting eaten by another animal! God tells us in the Bible that people are like sheep. We have all wandered away from Him, our good shepherd. Left to ourselves, we will all eventually face the consequences of our turning away from Him: death!

But Jesus is the good shepherd of His people! He is God's Son, sent to rescue all who turn away from their sins and trust in Him as their Savior. Upon Him, the LORD laid all of our iniquity (our sins). That is, He paid for them when He suffered and died on the cross. He rose from the dead on the third day showing that He had really done it. So, instead of getting the punishment of death that they justly deserve for turning away from God, all who trust in Jesus are forgiven and receive eternal life with God.
