Big Question 15: How Can I Know What God Is Like?

Answer: To Worship God and Love One Another... By Baptizing People Who Trust in and Live for Jesus!

Bible Truth 5 Meaning

When someone turns away from their sins and trusts Jesus as their Savior, God forgives them and saves them. Jesus said that everyone who does this should be baptized. What is baptism? Baptism is a special picture of how Jesus died for the sins of God's people and rose from the dead to save them. Not just anyone gets baptized. Baptism is a big deal. The godly leaders at church want to make sure that the person being baptized really understands the good news of Jesus and what it means to live as one of God's people. Sometimes a person is ready to be baptized very soon. But sometimes, the leaders think it's best if the person has more time to make sure that they really understand the good news of Jesus and are ready to live it out. It may not feel good to be told to wait, but the leaders want to do what's best for this person and what's best for the church. On baptism day, God's people gather together to watch, pray and celebrate. The person being baptized stands up and shares the story of how he came to trust in Jesus as his Savior. He tells of his desire to live God's way and to gather together with God's people. Then at last, it's baptism time! The new believer wades into the water with one of the pastors. The pastor holds onto the person as they lean back into the water for a few seconds. This is to remember that Jesus died and was buried for their sins. It's a picture that their old life of disobeying God is over. That life died with Jesus. Then, the pastor helps him/her come up out of the water. This reminds them that Jesus rose from the dead for them. He completely paid God's punishment for the sins. He has forgiven them once and for all. With God's help, they are beginning a new life of knowing, loving and obeying God. Often, everyone claps and cheers as the new believer comes up out of the water. They are so happy that someone else is telling the world that they are one of God's people and want to live for Him forever.

Repent of our sins (that is, turning away from wanting to disobey God and live for Him instead) and trust in Jesus as our Savior. God promises to save all who come to Him like this! And what happens when someone does this? God hears his prayers and forgives him. God puts His Holy Spirit in their heart and they begin a whole new life with God. God wants all who repent and believe in Jesus to be baptized as a special sign to everyone of what has happened inside their heart. Their old way of living is gone. They are forgiven! They are saved! And now they belong to God and live for Him! Have you ever been to a baptism? We can become one of God’s people, too, when we turn away from our sins and trust in Jesus as our Savior.

“Wait, then go!” Jesus told His disciples. “Wait in Jerusalem until you receive God’s Holy Spirit. He will live in your heart and give you the power to do everything God wants you to do,” Jesus told them. “Then go! Go into all the world, to all peoples, everywhere. Tell them about Me.” Jesus told His disciples.

“Tell them to repent—to turn away from disobeying God!” Jesus said. “Tell them to trust in Me as their Savior that they may be forgiven their sins and saved. Teach them everything I’ve taught you and baptize them as a sign they have turned away from their old life and become God’s people, who live to please God,” Jesus urged them. “You won’t see me with your eyes anymore. I’m going to heaven now,” Jesus told His disciples. “But I will be with you always until the end of time when I come back to earth,” He promised.

And that’s just what happened. Jesus went up, up, up to heaven. And the disciples went back to Jerusalem to wait for the Holy Spirit to come.

And wait, they did. One day, two days, three days, a week, even nine days! Still no Holy Spirit! Would He ever come? Had Jesus forgotten His promise?

What do you think?

YES, the Holy Spirit would come! And, NO, Jesus had not forgotten. He was waiting for the perfect time. DAY 10! The Day of Pentecost. “Whoosh,” there was a sound like a great wind... inside their house! “Sparkle, sparkle,” something that looked like flames of fire appeared over their heads. After this grand announcement, the Holy Spirit came quietly to live in the hearts of every one of those believers who gathered together that day.

The Holy Spirit might have come quietly, but He came powerfully, too! He gave the believers strength and courage and wisdom to do everything God wanted them to do.

The believers had waited. The Holy Spirit had come. Now what it was time to do? Can you remember what Jesus told them to do?

Can you remember?

Now it was time to GO!

But, go WHERE? WHERE were they to go?

Can you remember?
Jesus told them to go to the whole world. And go to the whole world with WHAT? Can you tell me what their special message was?

Can you tell me?

The good news of JESUS!

So, that’s what they did, starting right there in Jerusalem. “Jesus is God’s Son He is the Savior who came to save sinners from God’s punishment that they deserve,” Peter told a huge crowd in Jerusalem. “Turn away from disobeying God! Trust in Jesus as your Savior!” he urged them. “Be baptized as a sign that God has forgiven you and you are living a new life for Him.”

The Holy Spirit wasn’t just helping Peter that day. He was helping the people who listened to him preach, too. Many people heard and believed Peter’s message—about 3000 of them, the Bible tells us!

But they didn’t just believe and go about life the same way. They were changed people. They needed a special sign for this and Jesus had given them one. Can you remember what it was?

Can you remember?

It was baptism. One by one, Peter led these new believers into the water. “I baptize you in the name of God, the Father, Jesus, the Son of God, and God, the Holy Spirit,” he told each person. Then he carefully lowered him down into the water. Down they went, as a sign of their old life gone and their sins forgiven. Taken away by Jesus when He died on the cross and was buried in a grave. Then a moment later, Peter lifted them back up out of the water. Up they came, as a sign of their new life for God begun. A new life given them by Jesus, who rose from the dead, proving He had beaten sin and death for them.

Baptism was a big step for these believers. No, it didn’t make them God’s people. It didn’t save them from their sins. Salvation was the gift God gives to all who turn away from their sins and trust in Jesus as their Savior, whether they are baptized or not. But baptism was a sign to the world... a very big sign. It told the world: “This person is a follower of Jesus now. Watch him! Watch her! They will show you what Jesus is like and how God wants us to live. How He wants us to love Him and love one another.”

This sign of baptism would get them in trouble with Jesus’ enemies. They didn’t want more people to believe in Jesus. And this sign would make more people curious to hear the good news of Jesus. They would see these changed, joyful, forgiven lives and want to know more.

But perhaps best of all, this sign would make them welcomed as new brothers and sisters into the growing church family. And welcomed, they were. All three thousand. They gathered together with the rest of the little church of believers, learning from Peter and the other elders how to live as God’s people, and listening to them preach God’s Word. Praising God together and caring for each other’s needs. Oh, how the church in Jerusalem was growing and enjoying new life in Jesus!

But Jerusalem was just the beginning of the “Go” Jesus had given them. To who else did Jesus tell them to take the gospel and make disciples?

Can you tell me?

To the WHOLE WORLD! So away they went!
Philip went the land of Samaria, the home of their nearby enemies. He told them the good news of Jesus, too: “Jesus is God’s Son He is the Savior who came to save sinners from God’s punishment that they deserve,” Philip told the people of Samaria. “Turn away from disobeying God! Trust in Jesus as your Savior! Be baptized as a sign that God has forgiven you and you are living a new life for Him,” he urged them.

But, the Holy Spirit wasn’t just helping Philip as he preached that day. He was helping the people listening to him, too. Many of the people of Samaria heard and believed Philip’s message.

Yes, they believed in Jesus and they were baptized. Philip gathered them together into a little church of believers. They learned from him how to live as God’s people. They listened to him preach God’s Word. They praised God together and cared for each other’s needs. Oh, how the church in Samaria was growing and enjoying new life in Jesus!

But Samaria wasn’t the ends of the earth. It was only the land next door to Israel. There were many more people in many other places who needed to hear the good news of Jesus, too.

So away went Paul and Barnabas, Luke, Silas and Timothy, over the mountains and across the sea, to these tell these people. “Jesus is God’s Son He is the Savior who came to save sinners from God’s punishment that they deserve,” they told all who would listen. “Turn away from disobeying God! Trust in Jesus as your Savior! Be baptized as a sign that God has forgiven you and you are living a new life for Him,” they urged them.

Did the Holy Spirit only helped these men as they told the good news of Jesus?

What do you think?

No, He did not! The Holy Spirit was helping the people listening to them, too. Many of the people in these other, faraway places heard and believed their message.

Yes, they believed in Jesus and they were what?

Can you tell me?

They were baptized. Paul and Barnabas, Luke, Silas and Timothy gathered them together into little churches of believers. They learned from them how to live as God’s people. They listened to them preach God’s Word. They praised God together and cared for each other’s needs. Oh, how the church in these faraway places was growing and enjoying new life in Jesus!

Many, many years have gone by since Jesus told those first Christians to go into all the world, to all people, everywhere, with the good news of salvation through Him, but the work is still not done! There are still so many people who live right near us and in faraway places, who right STILL have not heard the good news of Jesus.

And that’s why Christians today are still obeying Jesus’ command to go. That’s why they are still telling people to turn away from disobeying God and to trust in Jesus as their Savior. That’s why they are still baptizing all who do as a sign that they have been forgiven by God and are living a new life for Him.

And they will keep on going and telling and baptizing new believers until the church has finished growing and Jesus comes back to gather all of God’s people together to live with Him forever!

Big Question 15, Bible Truth 5 Overview: Key Concepts

Unit 15: God's People Gather Together

Unit Big Question (and Answer): Why Do God's People Go to Church?
To Worship God and Love One Another!

Unit Bible Verse: “Let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds. Let us not give up meeting together.” Hebrews 10:24-25

Bible Truth 5 Concept: To Worship God and Love One Another... By Baptizing People Who Trust in and Live for Jesus!

When someone turns away from their sins and trusts in Jesus as their Savior, God forgives them and saves them. Jesus said that everyone who does this should be baptized. What is baptism? Baptism is a special picture of how Jesus died for the sins of God's people and rose from the dead to save them.

Not just anyone gets baptized. Baptism is a big deal. The godly leaders at church want to make sure that the person being baptized really understands the good news of Jesus and what it means to live as one of God's people. Sometimes a person is ready to be baptized very soon. But sometimes, the leaders think it's best if the person has more time to make sure that they really understand the good news of Jesus and are ready to live it out. It may not feel good to be told to wait, but the leaders want to do what's best for this person and what's best for the church.

On baptism day, God’s people gather together to watch, pray and celebrate. The person being baptized stands up and shares the story of how he came to trust in Jesus as his Savior. He tells of his desire to live God's way and to gather together with God's people.

Then at last, it’s baptism time! The new believer wades into the water with one of the pastors. The pastor holds onto the person as they lean back into the water for a few seconds. This is to remember that Jesus died and was buried for their sins. It's a picture that their old life of disobeying God is over. That life died with Jesus. Then, the pastor helps him/her come up out of the water. This reminds them that Jesus rose from the dead for them. He completely paid God's punishment for the sins. He has forgiven them once and for all. With God's help, they are beginning a new life of knowing, loving and obeying God. Often, everyone claps and cheers as the new believer comes up out of the water. They are so happy that someone else is telling the world that they are one of God's people and want to live for Him forever. We can become one of God's people when we turn away from our sins and trust in Jesus as our Savior.

Bible Truth 5 Bible Verse: Acts 2:38

“Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins.”

Learn a Little: “Repent and be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ.”

Meaning:

What a wonderful gift God has given us in Jesus! Through Him, we can be forgiven our sins and can become God's people forever. What do we have to do to receive this gift? Repent of our sins (that is, turning away from wanting to disobey God and live for Him instead) and trust in Jesus as our Savior. God promises to save all who come to Him like this! And what happens when someone does this? God hears his prayers and forgives him. God puts His Holy Spirit in their heart and they begin a whole new life with God.

God wants all who repent and believe in Jesus to be baptized as a special sign to everyone of what has happened inside their heart. Their old way of living is gone. They are forgiven! They are saved! And now they belong to God and live for Him! Have you ever been to a baptism?

We can become one of God's people, too, when we turn away from our sins and trust in Jesus as our Savior.
Bible Truth 5 ACTS Prayer

A  We praise You, God, for saving Your people, the Church, through Jesus. He is why we can become Your people.

C  God, we know that we can never become Your people on our own. We have all turned away from You and Your good ways. We need a Savior!

T  God, thank You for providing the way for us to become Your people through faith in Jesus. Thank You for giving them a new life when they turn away from their sins and trust in Him. Thank You for giving us baptism to help us remember the new way of life You give to all who do this.

S  God, work in our hearts. Help us to turn away from our sins and trust in Jesus as our Savior. Help us to one day be able to stand before God’s people and tell the story of how You saved us. Help us to trust our leaders to know when we are ready to be baptized and when we need to still wait and grow.
In Jesus’ name we pray, Amen.
