Can Anybody Tell Me What the LORD Is Like?
He's Not Like Anyone Else...

He Knows

There Is to Know!

HINT: "It's a word that means the opposite of "nothing."

It starts with the letter "E."

Deep Down Detective Devotion: Unit 4, Bible Truth 5, Lesson 1

Big Question 4: Can Anybody Tell Me What the LORD Is Like?

Answer: He's Not Like Anyone Else... He Knows Everything There Is to Know!

Bible Truth 5 Meaning

God knows everything. He knows everything about the world. He knows everything that has happened and everything that will happen. He knows everything about us, too. He knows everything we do and say. He even knows everything we are thinking in our hearts. There is nothing about us that is hidden from God, good or bad. God even knows every one of our sins. He knows we deserve His punishment and He has provided us with a Savior—Jesus! When we tell God our sins and turn to live for Him and trust in Jesus as our Savior, He will forgive us and make us His dearly loved people. Then we can know and love God in the wonderful special closeness that He made us to enjoy with Him.

How do I know this is true? The Bible tells me so!

“Blessed be the name of God forever and ever, to whom belong wisdom and might.” --- Daniel 2:20, ESV

Some Questions for You

1. What does God know? Everything.
2. What does God know about the world? Everything that has happened and will happen. Everything that is happening right now.
3. What does God know about us? Everything we do and say. Everything we are thinking in our hearts.
4. Can we hide anything good or bad that we've done from God? No.
5. Does God know all of our sins? Yes.
6. Why did God send Jesus? To save all who turn away from their sins and trust in Jesus as their Savior. He came to make us God's people!
7. What will God do when we trust in Jesus as our Savior? Forgive us for all our sins and makes us His people.
8. What does God want us for us? For us to know and love Him in the wonderful, special closeness that He made us to enjoy.

Let's Pray!

- A We praise You, God. You know everything there is to know. There is nothing anyone can hide from You. There is nothing You need to learn. You know it already. There is no one like You!
- C God, You know everything we think, say and do. You know that we have all chosen to disobey You. Please forgive our sins. We need a Savior!
- T Thank You for using everything You know for Your good plans. Thank You that we can trust You to take care of us and always do what's best.
- S Work in our hearts, God. Help us to turn away from our sins and trust in Jesus as our Savior. Help us to trust You even more. Help us to be happy with what Your plans since You know everything and always do what's best. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.

"Blessed be the name of God forever and ever, to whom belong wisdom and might." --- Daniel 2:20, ESV

Learn a Little: "Blessed be the name of God forever and ever."

Meaning

These verses tell us that the LORD is the God who knows everything there is to know. He is completely wise. There is nothing that can be hidden from Him. He is the one who gives wisdom to make wise people wise.

Some Questions for You

1. Whose name should we bless forever and ever? God's name.
2. What does it mean to bless God's name? It means to tell God how good and great He is and to thank Him for all He has done for us!
3. Who do wisdom and might belong to? What does that mean? They belong to God. That means that He knows everything there is to know and can do whatever He wants to do. And, whatever He does choose to do is always good and wise.
4. What is hidden from God? What is something that He doesn't know? There is nothing hidden from God. There is nothing He does not know.
5. Who can we trust to take care of us and give us what is best for us? We can trust God to take care of us and give us what is best. He is wise--so He always knows what is best. And He is mighty--so He always can do what is best.
6. How do we begin to trust in God and His wisdom and might? We can ask Him to help us turn away from our sins and trust in Jesus as our Savior. We can ask Him to guide us and take care of us. He loves to answer these prayers!

Let's Pray!

- A We praise You, God. You know everything there is to know. There is nothing anyone can hide from You. There is nothing You need to learn. You know it already. There is no one like You!

Blessed Be the Name of God: Daniel 2:20-22, from Deep Down Detectives ESV Songs 4, track 30

Refrain

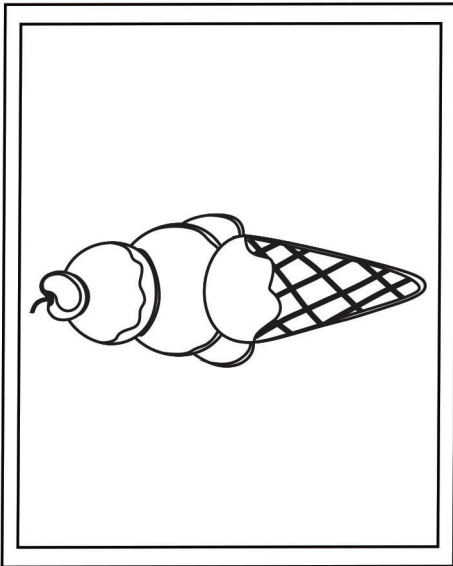

Blessed be the name of God forever and ever,
Blessed be the name of God forever and ever,
Blessed be the name of God forever and ever,
To whom belong wisdom and might,
To whom belong wisdom and might.

To you, O God of my fathers,
To you, O God of my fathers,
I give thanks and praise,
I give thanks and praise. Refrain

Daniel Chapter Two, verses twenty through twenty-three.

He changes times and seasons;
He gives wisdom to the wise,
He reveals deep and hidden things;
He knows what in the darkness lies,
And the light dwells with him,
And the light dwells with him.

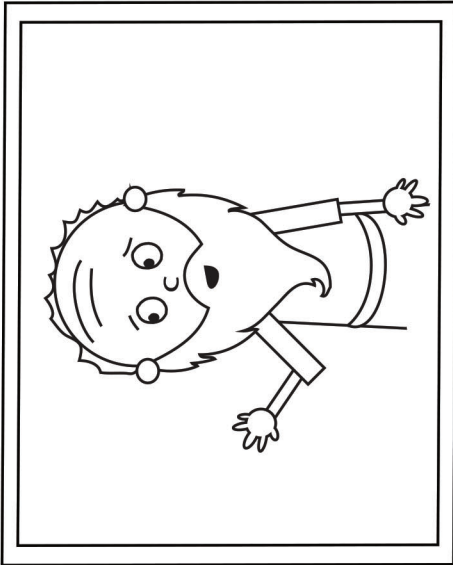

Which four of these clues belong in our story? Which two do not? Put an X in the boxes of the four that belong.

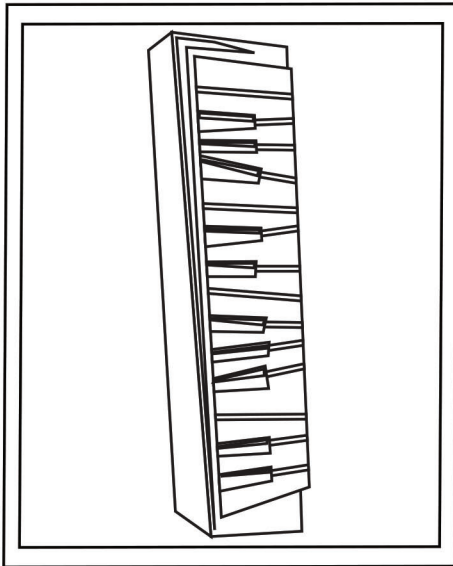

An Ice Cream Cone

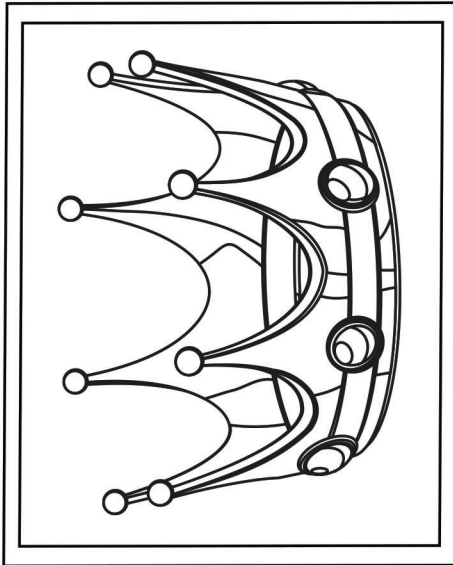

A Jar of Oil

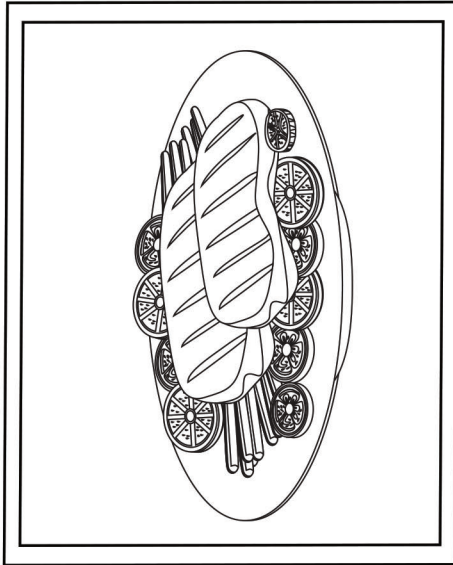

A Man Named Kish

A Piano

A Crown

Good Food

Answer: The jar of oil, the man named Kish, the crown and the good food belong in the story. The ice cream cone and the piano do not.

"Hey, Kids! Detective Dan, here. Listen carefully to the story and help me answer these questions:

Detective Dan's Lesson #1 Listening Assignment:

I need to find out:

1. Who lost their donkeys?
2. What good, big plan did the LORD use the lost donkeys to bring about?

Detective Dan's Lesson #2 Listening Assignment:

Our Bible Verse is Daniel 2:20:

"Blessed be the name of God forever and ever, to whom belong wisdom and might."

I need to find out:

1. What stranger did the LORD tell Samuel to prepare for?
2. Why did Samuel trust the LORD to know when this stranger would come?

Detective Dan's Lesson #3 Listening Assignment:

I found six clues, but only 4 of them are in the story.

They are: an ice cream cone, a jar of oil, a man named Kish, a piano, a crown, and good food.

Hold each of them up for the children to see as you identify them.

I need to figure out:

1. Which four belong in the story and which two don't?
2. Who praised God for being so wise and able to know everything?

Answers found at end of the story.

The Case of the Missing Donkeys 1 Samuel 9Story with lines separating paragraphs (text in bold, optional interaction cues in italics)

Kish had a big problem. Some of his animals were missing. Animals that were worth a lot! It wasn't his chickens. It wasn't his sheep or goats. It was another kind of animal--the kind that he used to pull his wagon and ride on, like we would use a truck or car. Can you guess what kind of animals were missing?

Can you guess?

It was his donkeys! Kish looked everywhere for them. He looked all over his farm....but no donkeys. He looked in the stable... but no donkeys. He looked in the fields...no donkeys. He looked faraway to the hills... but still no donkeys!

Kish's donkeys were lost, there was no doubt about that. And Kish just had to find them! So Kish made a plan. He would send his son, Saul to go look for them.

"Saul, take one of the servants and go look for the donkeys," Kish told Saul.

Saul obeyed and soon he and the servant were on their way in search of the lost donkeys. Where could they be?

For three, long days Saul and the servant walked and looked. They climbed up hills and searched there... but there were no donkeys. They walked down into valleys of green grass and searched there...but there were no donkeys. They looked by sparkling streams of cool water, too--all the kinds of places donkeys like to go. But still there were no donkeys!

Where WERE those donkeys? Kish didn't know. Saul and the servant didn't know. Did anyone know? Yes, someone did know.

Who DID know? Can you guess?

That someone was the LORD. He is the God who knows everything there is to know. And He knew exactly where those donkeys had gone off to.

And not only did the LORD know exactly where the donkeys were, He even planned something very good to happen to Saul as he looked for them. The LORD had planned to use this little journey looking for donkeys to put Saul in just the right place, with just the right person to make Saul the first king of Israel. And the LORD was going to do all of this without Saul knowing even one little bit of His good, big plan!

Saul didn't know about God's plans, but a man named Samuel did. Samuel was a prophet--a special messenger for the LORD. The LORD had told Samuel about Saul and His plans to make him king.

"Samuel, tomorrow the man I've chosen to be king over Israel is coming to Zuph. He will lead the people in fighting off their enemies, the Philistines. I want you to pour the special anointing oil on his head and make him king over Israel," the LORD told him.

This was big news! The LORD had chosen a man to lead the people against their enemies. And, this man was coming to Zuph to be anointed king...the very next day! A worship feast to the LORD was planned. Samuel and Saul would be there for it. Up in the hills, they would offer worship gifts to the LORD, and would honor Saul with a fine dinner. There was so much to do in so little time! There were guests to invite. There were worship gifts to buy. There was the table to set for the feast, and all of the good food to prepare.

Story with lines separating paragraphs (text in bold, optional interaction cues in italics)

There was so much to do in so little time! There were guests to invite. There were worship gifts to buy. There was the table to be set for the feast, and good food to prepare and cook.

By the end of the day, everything was ready. The worship gifts were offered and the guests gathered in the dining hall up at the worship place. Everyone was ready to eat the delicious food. It looked like it was time for the feast to begin, but it couldn't. Something--really, someONE was missing.

Can you guess who?

It was Saul. the special guest, himself! After all, no one had told HIM about the worship feast. No one had told HIM he was going to be anointed king of Israel! He was just out looking for lost donkeys. The whole thing seemed rather silly to think that Saul would show up at the feast that night, don't you think?

I guess it WOULD be silly, but for one thing: this was the LORD's plan and He is the God who knows everything there is to know. If He said that Saul would be there, then Saul would be there. Samuel was sure of that!

And sure enough, just as Samuel was on his way up to join the guests at the feast, who should be looking for him at the city gates? You guessed it! Saul and his servant! "This is the man I told you about," the LORD told Samuel. "The man I've chosen to be king."

Saul went up to Samuel and said, "My servant says you are a great man of God and God tells you things. Can you tell me where my father's donkeys are?"

"Don't worry about your father's donkeys," Samuel told Saul. "They've been found. They are back at home. Go with me to the worship feast up in the hills. Sit at the most important place. Eat the best food. I've been waiting for you to come," Samuel said.

Saul didn't understand why Samuel had been waiting for him, but he didn't complain. He went with Saul up to the worship place and took the place of honor next to Samuel. He enjoyed the good food and the worship feast. And what a feast it was! Why, Samuel had even saved the very best piece of meat for HIM! Yum!

After dinner, Samuel took Saul and his servant to his house for the night. He made them a bed on the roof, and there they slept out under the stars.

At sunrise, Samuel woke Saul and his servant. "Get up so I may send you on your way," Samuel told them. Samuel walked with them out of town. "Send your servant on ahead, Saul. I have something important from God to tell you alone," Samuel said. Saul and his servant obeyed.

When the servant had passed ahead of them, Samuel took out his jar of special oil and poured it on Saul's head. He kissed Saul, then said, "I have poured this oil on your head as a sign that you are to be king of Israel. The LORD has chosen you of all men. You will rule over them and you will rescue them from the enemies who live in the lands around them. In a few days, we will tell all the people. But for now keep this a secret."

What a lot Saul had to think about as he went home with his servant! The LORD had planned to use those lost donkeys to make him king over Israel! And, the LORD had told Samuel what he would do and where he would go, even before he did it!

How could the LORD do this? Because He is the God who knows everything there is to know! He is like no one else. How amazing is the LORD!

Cracking the Case:

It's time to see how we did with our Listening Assignment.

Detective Dan's Lesson 1 Listening Assignment:

1. Who lost their donkeys? Kish did.

2. What good, big plan did the LORD use the lost donkeys to bring about? His plan to make Saul king over the people.

For You and Me:

The LORD still knows everything there is to know and He still weaves His good plans into everything that happens to us and to this world. We can always trust the promises that He gives us in His Word, the Bible. We can always trust Him to carry out His good plans.

Detective Dan's Lesson 2 Listening Assignment:Our Bible Verse is Daniel 2:20:

"Blessed be the name of God forever and ever, to whom belong wisdom and might."

1. What stranger did the LORD tell Samuel to prepare for? Saul.

2. Why did Samuel trust the LORD to know when this stranger would come? Samuel knew that the LORD was the God who knows everything there is to know. All wisdom (and power) are His. Samuel knew that if the LORD planned for Saul to come, then Saul would most definitely come. And so he did!

For You and Me:

The LORD still knows everything there is to know and He still weaves His good plans into everything that happens to us and to this world. We can always trust the promises that He gives us in His Word, the Bible. We can always trust Him to carry out His good plans, even when we don't understand how and when He will carry them out.

Detective Dan's Lesson 3 Listening Assignment:

Our six clues were: an ice cream cone, a jar of oil, a man named Kish, a piano, a crown, and good food.

1. Which four belong in our story? The jar of oil, the man named Kish, the crown and the good food .

2. Who praised God for being so wise and able to know everything? Samuel and Saul did.

For You and Me:

The LORD still knows everything there is to know and He still weaves His good plans into everything that happens to us and to this world. We can always trust the promises that He gives us in His Word, the Bible. We can always trust Him to carry out His good plans, even when we don't understand how and when He will carry them out. How much more than us He knows! How wise He is!

The GospelOur Bible Truth is:

Can Anybody Tell Me What the LORD Is Like?

He's Not Like Anyone Else...

He Knows Everything There Is to Know!

Sometimes it is scary to know that God knows everything about us. We can hide some of the bad things we think or say or do from others, but we can't hide anything from God. We know that He hates sin and He will punish sin. We know that we all choose to do things our own way, not God's good way.

Isn't God so kind to us, though? He knows every bad thing about us, yet He promises to forgive every single one of them, when we repent of our sins and trust in Jesus as our Savior. And if we do, He will not ONLY forgive our sins, but He will give us a new heart to know and love Him. We will get to have special closeness in our hearts with Him for the rest of our lives. Then, one day when we die, we will go to live with Him and enjoy Him forever-- as happy as anyone can ever be! How amazing is the LORD! How good and loving He is to us! There is no one like Him! Close in prayer.

Closing ACTS Prayer

- A We praise You, God. You know everything there is to know. There is nothing anyone can hide from You. There is nothing You need to learn. You know it already. There is no one like You!
