Big Question 9 : How Can I Know What God Is Like?

Answer: Jesus Came to Bring Us to God... He Taught about God and Did Amazing Things!

Bible Truth 3 Meaning

Before Jesus died on the cross, He taught about God for three years. Jesus taught from the Bible. He told the people what God is like. He taught them that He was God's Son who had come to save them from their sins. He taught them how they could become God's people and how God's people should live. The people who listened to Jesus teach were amazed. They had never heard someone tell them so much about God. Jesus talked as if He knew God, and, of course, He did. Jesus wasn't just a man like them, He was the Son of God, Himself. Jesus didn't just teach about God. He also did many amazing things by God's power—miracles! Things so amazing that only God could do. He fed thousands of people with just a little bit of food. He stilled the wind and waves of a raging storm with just His word. He healed sick people and even brought dead people to life by God's power. And what did God use Jesus' teaching and these miracles to do? To show the people that Jesus really was His Son, the Messiah, the Savior, who had come to save them. And that's exactly what many people did! They turned away from their sins and trusted in Jesus, as God's Son, their Savior.

How do I know this is true? The Bible tells me so!

"Jesus went... preaching the good news of the kingdom, and healing every disease and sickness among the people."
--Matthew 4:23

The Case of the Eyewitness*Luke 4:31ff; 5; 9:28-36; 11:23-24; John 2; 6:16-21; 11Story with lines separating paragraphs (text in bold, optional interaction cues in italics)"Have you heard about Jesus?" everyone was asking.

In the market, as they sold their sheep and bought their fruit and vegetables. In the fields, as they gathered in their wheat. In the boats, as they pulled in their nets full of flopping fish. On the dusty road, as they walked along. In their beds, as they went to sleep. Everywhere people lived and worked and played, they were asking that same question: "Have you heard about Jesus?"

And why wouldn't people want to talk about Jesus? He was saying and doing the most amazing things! No one had ever met anyone like Jesus.

Perhaps no one knew this better than Peter. One Sabbath worship day, Peter joined the people gathering at the synagogue, the worship place in his town. And who was teaching there that day?

*Can you guess?It was Jesus!

Peter and the others watched as Jesus took out a scroll of the Bible and read from it, just like the other teachers did. But what would this new teacher say? Would His teachi just like the other teachers?

Now, the other teachers taught the people about God's 613 laws written down in the Bible. And, they gave the people lots of extra, little DO's and DON'Ts rules that they thought would help everyone obey God's laws better. They taught "DO's" like: "Do say a special prayer as you wash your hands when you wake up in the morning, or you won't please God." And "DON'T's" like: "Don't use the same spoon to stir milk and cook meat, or you won't please God." And even though NONE of these little rules were in the Bible, those teachers were SURE that obeying them was the way to please God.

But, oh, But, oh, how all those extra, little rules weighed down upon the people! Would Jesus teach the people the same extra, little, when He preached from God's Word?

What do you think?

No, He would not! What Jesus taught from God's Word wasn't ANYTHING like what the other rabbis (teachers) taught. When Jesus preached, He told people what the Bible REALLY meant. He told them what God was like and how God wanted them to live. How powerfully Jesus preached that morning! Peter and the others were amazed at what they heard. This Jesus was not like any other teacher. He was giving them words filled with life. Their hearts leaped with excitement to hear more. What would Jesus say next?

Suddenly, right in the middle of Jesus' preaching, a man stood up and started shouting at Jesus as loud as he could: "Go away! What do You want with us, Jesus? Have You come to get rid of us? I know who You are! You are God's Son!" he yelled.

The man was right. Jesus WAS God's Son. He had come to save God's people and to break the power of sin and death. But something was terribly wrong here. God's great enemy, Satan, was using this poor man to get in the way of Jesus telling people this good news, not to help anyone put their trust in Him as their Savior.

"Go away! Leave this man alone!" Jesus ordered. Instantly, the man was freed. He became happy and calm. Peter and the others were shocked! Jesus had complete power over God's great enemy, Satan, with just His

Bible Story for Big Question 9, Bible Truth 3 use with all THREE lessonsP.3Story with lines separating paragraphs (text in bold, optional interaction cues in italics)*

But if Peter thought that was the only amazing thing he would see Jesus do that day, he was wrong. After the worship service, Jesus went home with Peter. Peter's mother-in-law was in bed with a hot, hot fever.

Usually, she would be up, welcoming Peter and his important guest home, and serving them a delicious, homemade meal. Not this time. She was so sick that she couldn't even get out of bed.

But now, Jesus had come. He would help her. "Leave this woman," Jesus said to the fever, and it did. She was healed! She got up from her bed and helped serve the food. How happy and grateful she was for this amazing teacher!

News about Jesus spread around town quickly. Neither Peter's family nor the people in the synagogue could keep quiet. "Have you heard about Jesus? Have you heard about Jesus?" they exclaimed. And when the sun set on that Sabbath worship day, crowds of sick people hurried to Peter's house. Blind people, deaf people, people with hurting legs, and many other sicknesses came. They were all there with one hope. Do you know what it was?

Can you guess?

They all hoped that Jesus would heal them, too. And sure enough, Peter watched as Jesus placed His hands on them, one by one. With God's great power, Jesus healed them all.

Wow! What a worship day that had been! Peter had heard Jesus teach about God like no one else he had ever heard. Peter had seen Jesus do so many amazing things by God's great power. What a day, indeed!

That worship day was just the beginning. Peter left his home and followed Jesus everywhere He went. Peter became one of Jesus' disciples and one of His closest friends. Peter wanted to hear Jesus tell MORE about God, and see Him do MORE amazing things, by God's great power.

And so Peter did, day after day. Peter heard Jesus teach that He was God's Son, come to save sinners. He heard Jesus teach about how God wants His people to live.

Peter watched Jesus do more amazing things, by God's power, too. Peter watched Jesus turn water into delicious wine at a wedding. He watched Jesus walk on top of the wavy waters of the Sea of Galilee, one night. Jesus even invited Peter to walk on the water with Him! High up on a mountain, Peter saw Jesus shine with God's beautiful, bright glory. And Peter even saw Jesus raise a man named Lazarus back to life after he had been dead for FOUR DAYS!

But it wasn't until the very end of Jesus' life that Peter saw Jesus do the greatest thing He would ever do. Can you guess what that was?

Can you guess?

Peter watched Jesus suffer and die on a cross for the sins of God's people. Then on the third day, Peter saw Jesus, risen from the dead. Jesus had done it! He had really beaten sin and death for God's people.

As Peter heard Jesus teach all these things and watched Him do all these things, God gave Peter faith to believe. Yes! Jesus WAS God's Son, the Savior come down from heaven to save them from their sins! Peter turned away from his sins and trusted in Jesus as his Savior. The Holy Spirit came to live in Peter's heart, helping him love God and tell others the good news of Jesus, too.

Peter spent the rest of his life telling others that good news. He praised God as many people heard and trusted in Jesus as their Savior, too.

But for Peter, the best day of all was when he died and went to heaven. Then Peter could see for himself how everything Jesus had taught was true! All of Peter's sins HAD been forgiven! God HAD given him eternal life through Jesus. Now Peter would live face-to-face with Jesus, once more. But this time, it would last forever and ever.

Cracking the Case: (story wrap-up for Listening Assignments)

It's time to see how we did with our Listening Assignment.

Detective Dan's Lesson 1 Listening Assignment:

An eyewitness is someone who knows something is true because he saw it happen.

I need to know:

1. Who was an eyewitness who saw what Jesus did? Peter.

2. What did this eyewitness see Jesus do that was most amazing of all? Peter saw Jesus die on the cross for the sins of God's people, then rise from the dead, three days later.

For You and Me:

Peter turned from his sins and trusted in Jesus as his Savior. He spent the rest of his life loving God and living for Him. That's exactly what God wants us to do, too. Ask Him to help you. He loves to answer prayers like this!

Detective Dan's Lesson 2 Listening Assignment:Our Bible Verse is Matthew 4:23:

"Jesus went... preaching the good news of the kingdom, and healing every disease and sickness among the people."

I need to find out:

1. What did people think as they listened to Jesus teach? They had never heard anyone speak about God as He did.

2. What did people think as they watched Jesus heal their sicknesses? They had never seen anyone do such amazing things by God's power as He did.

For You and Me:

Jesus taught amazing things and did amazing things, all by God's power. Why? Because He wanted people to put their trust in Him as their Savior. And that's exactly what Jesus wants us to do, as we hear about Him today. He wants us to turn away from our sins and trust in Him as our Savior. If we do, we will become God's dearly-loved people. We will get to know God now in our hearts. And one day, get to go live with Him forever.

Detective Dan's Lesson 3 Listening Assignment:

Our six clues were: a man named Peter; a bumblebee; a sick woman; some medicine; a worship place; and, God's Word, the Bible.

1. Which four belong in our story?

Peter, the sick woman, the worship place and the Bible belong. The moose and the medicine do not.

2. What did many sick people thank Jesus for doing for them? For healing them of their sicknesses.For You and Me:

Many sick people thanked Jesus for healing them by God's power, but Jesus did something far greater for them, by God's power. He suffered and died on the cross that they might be forgiven their sins and have eternal life with God. This is something we can thank Jesus for doing, too, if we turn away from our sins and trust in Him as our Savior. Then, we will be God's dearly-loved people. We will get to know God now in our hearts. And one day, get to go live with Him forever.

The Gospel (story wrap-up if NOT using Listening Assignments)Our Bible Truth is:*How Can I Know What God Is Like?*Jesus Came to Bring Us to God!*He Taught about God and Did Amazing Things!
