

The Case of the Eager Waiters*Acts 1-2Story-telling Tips

Ahead of time:

1. Read the Bible verses and story. Pray!
2. Choose story action cues and prepare storyboard figures/story scenes, if using. (In Visual Aids book)
3. Practice telling story with the storyboard pictures, timing your presentation. Shorten, if necessary.

During your presentation:

1. Maintain as much eye contact as possible as you tell the story.
2. Put up storyboard figures/add story action cues/hold up storybook scenes as you tell the story. Allow the children to help you put them on the board, if desired.
3. Include the children in your story with a few questions about what they think will happen or words/concepts that might be new to them.
4. Watch the kids for signs that their attention span has been reached. Shorten, if necessary.

INTRODUCTION/ LISTENING ASSIGNMENTS (Optional)

“Our story is called: The Case of the Eager Waiters. Here is your listening assignment... ” Read from Detective Dan’s Listening Assignment signs, but questions are summarized below:

Detective Dan’s Lesson #1 Listening Assignment:

I need to find out:

1. Who was waiting? What were they eager (excited) to have happen?
2. When happened inside of them when it did happen?

Detective Dan’s Lesson #2 Listening Assignment:Our Bible Verse is: 1 Corinthians 6:19

“Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit, who is in you, whom you have received from God?”

A temple is a special place where we worship God.

I need to find out:

1. Who came into the disciples’ hearts to live?
2. How did He make their hearts like a temple, a place of worship to God?

Detective Dan’s Lesson #3 Listening Assignment:

I found six clues, but only 4 of them are in the story.

They are: a praying disciple, the world, a cow, the Ten Commandments, a violin, and the Holy Spirit in a heart.

Hold each of them up for the children to see as you identify them.

I need to figure out:

1. Which four belong in the story and which two don’t?
2. What did the disciples keep asking God to send them? Why did they want God to send Him so much?

Read the assignment questions, THEN SAY,

“Ok, Deep Down Detectives! Put on your best listening ears and see if you can hear the answers to Detective Dan’s questions. When I finish telling the story, we will see if we can answer all the questions.”

Read the Bible Truth story, answer questions, present the gospel and lead in prayer.Answers to questions; the gospel; and, ACTS prayer are included with the story text.

(SB1, SB2) "Go to Jerusalem and wait for the gift!" Jesus told His disciples, after He died on the cross and rose from the dead. "I'm going home to heaven now, but I won't leave you alone," He said. "I will ask the Father and He will send you a gift. It's good that I'm going so you can have this gift!" Jesus promised them.

What kind of gift would Jesus ask His Father to send His disciples?

Do you know what the gift was?

What gift could be better than having Jesus right BESIDE them each day? (SB3) The gift of God, the Holy Spirit living INSIDE them! Wow! What a gift!

"The Holy Spirit will come and live inside you," Jesus said. (SB4) He will give you power to be my witnesses to the whole world. He will help you, comfort you, guide you and give you courage," He promised them.

(SB5) Up, up, up, went Jesus. Through the clouds and up to heaven to rule as king. And where did the disciples go? (SB6) They headed to Jerusalem, just as Jesus told them to. And as they went, they spread the news to (SB7) the other believers, "(SB8) Wait in Jerusalem with us for the gift of the Holy Spirit," they told everyone. (SB9) So, all the believers gathered together in a house in Jerusalem. They prayed and waited; and, waited and prayed.

(SB10) One, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine days passed, but still no Holy Spirit! Had God forgotten? Had He changed His mind?

What do you think? Does God ever NOT keep His promises?

NO, God NEVER breaks His promises! And no, He hadn't forgotten His promise! He was waiting for Day Ten to give the gift of the Holy Spirit to His people. It was all part of His perfect plan to tell the world about Jesus.

Why Day Ten? Because Day Ten was a very special celebration day in Jerusalem, called the Day of Pentecost. (SB11) Thousands of Jews from all over the world came Jerusalem to thank God for giving them His Ten, Big Rules—the Ten Commandments.

On the Day of Pentecost, Jerusalem was so crowded it seemed like it would burst! And that was exactly how God wanted it to be when He gave the gift of the Holy Spirit to His people! He wanted everyone to know what was happening!

So right then, on the morning of (SB12) Day Ten, the Day of Pentecost, the Holy Spirit came upon Jesus' followers who had been praying and waiting in that house—all one hundred and twenty of them!

(SB13) "Whoosh" came from heaven a sound like a mighty wind that filled the whole house. (SB14) "Crackle, Sparkle" came down something that looked like fire and rested on each of them. Then quietly and powerfully, (SB15) the Holy Spirit came to live in the heart of all of them. He filled them with God's joy, peace and power! They were so happy! (SB16) They burst out of that house and ran into the streets in joy!

Story with lines separating paragraphs (text in bold, optional interaction cues in italics)

But that's not all the Holy Spirit did in those first disciples. (SB17) He also made them able to speak in other languages that they had never learned before! Why would God do that?

Can you guess?

So that these disciples could go out and begin telling the people of the world about Jesus—starting with all those Jews from around the world who were there in Jerusalem that very morning!

(SB18) Not just Israelites, but Romans and Greeks. Egyptians and Arabs, Africans and Asians suddenly heard the good news of Jesus in their very own language. Everyone was amazed!

(SB19) "What was going on! How can these people speak their languages? What gift is this?" many wondered. Others laughed and made fun of them.

Can you tell me what gift it was? You know the answer, even if these people didn't!

(SB20) The Holy Spirit worked in Peter's heart, making him bold and giving him wise words from God's Word to speak. "These people are speaking your languages by God's Holy Spirit," Peter explained. "God has sent Him to live inside of all who follow Jesus. Come, turn away from your sin, trust in Jesus as your Savior and be baptized. God will send the Holy Spirit to live inside you, too," he promised them.

What would these people do? Would they believe Peter's words? Would they keep laughing and walk away?

What do you think?

Many DIDN'T walk away, but BELIEVED! (SB21) Over three thousand people turned away from their sins and trusted in Jesus as their Savior that very day.

And who came to live inside the hearts of those three thousand new believers that day? I bet you know.

Can you tell me?

(SB22) God's Holy Spirit, just as Peter had told them He would. He filled them with God's joy, peace and power! These new disciples were so happy! Now they could know God in their hearts!

Already, God's Holy Spirit had begun to do amazing things in God's people. God's plan to tell the world the good news of Jesus was happening! And this was only the beginning! How many more wonderful things would God's Holy Spirit do!

Cracking the Case: (story wrap-up for Listening Assignments)

It's time to see how we did with our Listening Assignment.

Detective Dan's Lesson 1 Listening Assignment:

1. Who was waiting? What were they eager (excited) to have happen? Jesus' disciples were waiting for God to send them the Holy Spirit to live in their hearts.

2. When happened inside of them when it did happen? The Holy Spirit filled their hearts with joy and gave them boldness to tell others the good news of Jesus.

For You and Me:

The disciples were so happy to have the Holy Spirit live in their hearts! He was always with them, helping them know and love God, and helping them love others. He gave boldness to tell others about Jesus. The Holy Spirit can come and live inside of us, too, when we turn away from our sins and trust in Jesus as our Savior. He can help us to know and love God. He can help us to love others, too. He can give us boldness to tell others the good news of Jesus so they can be saved. He won't come with a great show of fire and wind, like He did for those first disciples. He will come gently and quietly in our hearts and be with us, helping us, our whole lives.

Detective Dan's Lesson 2 Listening Assignment:Our Bible Verse is: 1 Corinthians 6:19

"Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit, who is in you, whom you have received from God?"

A temple is a special place where we worship God.

The Holy Spirit. They wanted to know and love God more through the Holy Spirit. They wanted Him to help them live for God.
