The Good Promises of God, the Father

Craft Description

The children will decorate a card with flaps that reveal promises that God gives His people.

Materials

White paper or cardstock, two pieces per craft

Markers or crayons

Glue

Scissors (teacher use)

Preparations

1. Print out the two pages as two separate pieces of paper.
2. Set out markers/crayons.

Introducing the Craft:

“Our Big Question is: “Why Do God’s People Keep Believing in Him?” We’ve learned that “It Is God’s Sustaining Grace... God, the Father, Promises to Help His People.” That’s what our pictures are about today! They tell us about some of the MANY promises that God, the Father, has given to help His people in the Bible. We can become God’s people and these promises can be His promises to us, when we turn away from our sins and trust in Jesus as our Savior. But these promises and this good news of a Savior is for everyone, so do you know what God wants us to do? He wants us to go and tell others this very important news. So today we are going to make something we can remember these promises for ourselves; and, so we can go and tell them to others, too. Here’s what it looks like...” (Hold up example of craft)

Directions

1. Show children your finished craft, reading the words to them.
2. Have the children color in the pictures on top card.
3. Teacher then cuts out on three sides of each box to make window flaps.
4. Glue top page to bottom page, lining up the promises with the windows. Only glue around edges so the flaps don’t get glued shut.
5. Make sure to write each child’s name on their craft.
6. If you have time, you can practice saying the words on the card.

Discussion

This is an especially good time to re-read the key concepts and discuss them. See the Deep Down Discussion Sheet for possible questions to talk about.

Craft Wrap-Up:

At the end of our time together today, you get to take home your Go and Tell crafts. And what are you going to do with them? Show and tell someone the important news you’ve learned today. Hold up the cards and say the words together.

Why Do God's People Keep Believing in Him? It is God's Sustaining Grace... God, the Father, Promises to Help His People! God promised to help the people of Israel and He kept every single one! He promised to rescue them and bring them all the way home to Canaan and He did! Like the people of Israel, God. Like the people of Israel, God holds out His promises to us. Promises to forgive our sins and make us His people. Promises to help us to live for Him, all the days of our lives. Like the people of Israel, God holds out His promises to us. Promises to forgive our sins and make us His people. Promises to help us to live for Him, all the days of our lives. How can these promises from God become promises for us? When we turn away from our sins and trust in Jesus as our Savior. And if we do, then we, too, will have so very, very much to thank the LORD for!
