About the Deep Down Detectives Visual Aids

How Are They Used?

The Deep Down Detectives Visual Aids book is a companion resource to be used alongside the Deep Down Detectives Core Curriculum book for each unit. These colorful pictures are used in presenting the key concepts; telling the Bible stories; and, in playing the Bible Story Review games.

What Do They Include?

There are four different resources included in this book:

1. Key Concept Visual Aids-- colorful signs of the Big Question and Answer, the Bible Truth, the Bible verse, and the Listening Assignments to use with the 3 lessons for each Bible Truth.

2. The Story Scenes Placement Page--where to place the pictures on your storyboard.

3. The Story Scenes, themselves. Notice that each scene is numbered and that there is a brief summary of the story that corresponds to the picture. You can actually just tell the story in a simple way by using only the text at the bottom of each Story Scene.

5. Directions for making the Deep Down Detectives "Bible" Folder and the back/front images to paste in place when making it. (Larger back/front images are found online with the curriculum.)

Directions for how to make a homemade flannelgraph storyboard and sturdy Story Scene pictures are found in the back of this book.

Ready, Set, Rip It Out!

This book is meant to be ripped up and made into your visual aids. The key concept signs can be cut out and laminated or slipped into sheet protectors. The Story Scenes can be put in sheet protectors or laminated, too.

Store It!

Deep Down Detectives is a curriculum that can be used over and over. Store your visual aids and storyboard pictures after using them and they will serve you for many years. We store ours in manilla envelopes and then put them (along with all the rest of the curriculum) in magazine files, labelled by Bible Truth. If you have multiple classes using the curriculum, store each set of resources in separate manilla envelopes. This will make prep much simpler, second time around.

Replacement Story Scene Pictures

You can always purchase this book again or simply go online and print out any scenes that go missing.

Other Options

You can also choose to tell the story in a more traditional flannelgraph way by using your own flannelgraph figures or by purchasing/free downloading the Storyboard Pictures (large and small format size available). This is more complex and requires more preparation, but some love it. And, it does allow for kids to interact more by helping to place pictures up on the board as you tell the story.

Unit 4: The God Like None Other

Unit Big Question (and Answer): Can Anybody Tell Me What the LORD Is Like? He's Not Like Anyone Else!

Unit Bible Verse: "O LORD...there is no God like you, in heaven above or on earth beneath." 1 Kings 8:23

Bible Truth 4 Concept: He's Not Like Anyone Else... He Is Everywhere, All the Time!

How many places can you be at once? Can you be here with us and out on the playground at the same time? Can you hear what your parents are saying in the kitchen and what the king in a faraway country is saying at the same time? No, you can't and neither can I!

But God is very different from us. He is everywhere, all the time. He is with you and me right here. He is with your friends and family in their homes and at work. He is even with all the people who live far away in other parts of the world... and all at the same time! There is nowhere we can go, where God will not be, too. He sees everything everyone is doing, all the time. He is always there to comfort us, to help us, and to save us, when we trust Jesus as our Savior.

Bible Truth 4 Bible Verse: Psalm 139:1-3,7-10, ESV

"O LORD, you have searched me and known me! You know when I sit down and when I rise up; you discern my thoughts from afar...and are acquainted with all my ways... Where shall I go from your Spirit? Or where shall I flee from your presence? If I ascend to heaven, you are there! If I make my bed in Sheol, you are there! If I take the wings of the morning and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea, even there your hand shall lead me, and your right hand shall hold me."

Learn a Little: "O LORD...You are acquainted with all my ways."

Meaning

These verses tell us that God is everywhere, all the time. There is nowhere we can flee from God's Spirit. Everywhere we are, He is, too. God knows us inside and out. He hears all of our prayers. He will help and protect those who trust in Him, no matter where they are. He will always be guiding them according to His perfect plans. Ask Him to help you trust in Him!

Bible Truth 4 ACTS Prayer

A We praise You, God, that You are the great and awesome God. There is no God like you. You are everywhere, all the time. You see everything there is to see. You are always with us.

C God, You are always with us. Nothing is hidden from You. We know You see us disobey You every single time. We need a Savior! Please forgive us through Jesus!

S Thank You, God, for always being with us wherever we are. Thank You that even when we feel very alone, You are there. We can always turn to You and ask You for help.

Help us to turn away from our sins and trust in Jesus as our Savior. Help us to live to please You as You watch us. Help us to depend on You to take care of us. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.

The Big Question

Hold up the Big Question sign for all the children to see, and say:

The Big Question we are investigating today is

Big Question Number 4:

Can Anybody Tell Me What the LORD Is Like?

and the Answer is:

He's Not Like Anyone Else!

Meaning:

There are many gods that people worship, but none is like the LORD. He is the one, true God. He's not like anyone else! He's always been alive--and He will never die. He's completely good and loving. He's all-powerful and all-wise. And that's just the beginning of what the LORD is like. He is so great! There will always be more of Him to know.

Let's sing our Big Question Song: "

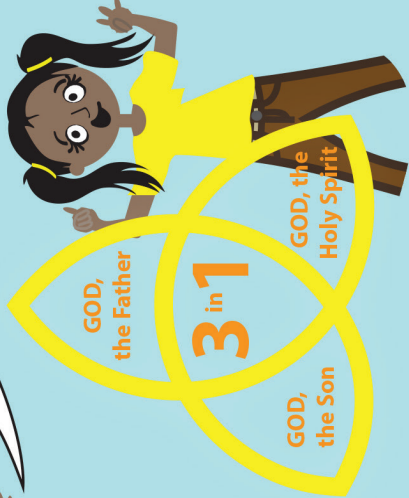

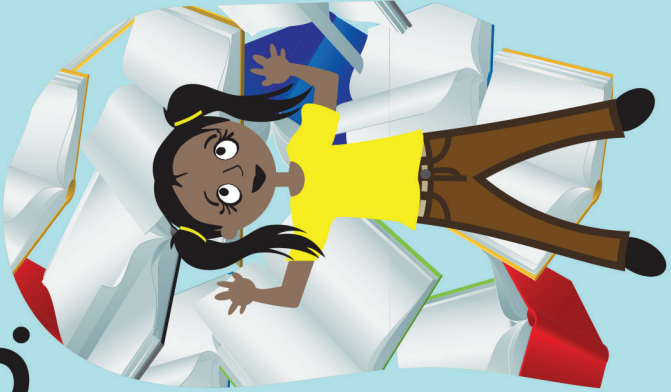

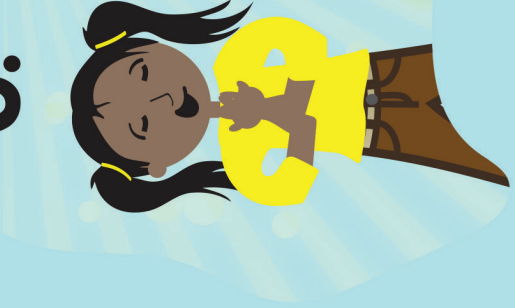

Big Q & A 4 Song

DDD ESV Songs 4, track 12

(adapted version of "Have You Ever Seen a Lassie")

Can anybody tell me,
Tell me, tell me,
Can anybody tell me,
What the LORD is like?
He's not like anyone else,
Anyone else, anyone else,
He's not like anyone else,
That's what the LORD is like.

This Unit's Bible Truths

"He's not like anyone else" is a good beginning, but there's so more to learn. So it's time for us to dig down even deeper for more answers to our Big Question about God. We're going to be learning EIGHT Bible truths that all tell us more about what the God is like.

Who would like to hand me the picture with our eight Bible truths on it? It's in the Big Question Box/Briefcase."

Choose a child to get it and hand it to you, then hold it up and show them the pictures of the eight truths they will be learning.

After everyone has had a good look say...

"Ok, we've learned three truths about the gospel. They are: "He is a Glorious Spirit", "He Is the One, True God"; and, "He is God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit: One God, but Three Persons." (point to pictures as you identify each Bible Truth). Now let's look at our Bible Truth Clue sign and see if we can figure out which of these four truths we will be learning about today. Who would like to get it out of the Big Question Briefcase for me?"

Choose a child to open the briefcase, take out the Bible Truth Clue sign and hand it to you.

CAN YOU GUESS BIBLE TRUTH 4?

Can Anybody Tell Me What the LORD Is Like?
He's Not Like Anyone Else...

He Is ???,

All the Time!

HINT: "It's a word that

Revealing the Bible Truth

We Are Learning

Hold up the front side for the children to see. Cover up the answer, written along the bottom, and say:

“Can Anybody Tell Me What the LORD Is Like?
He’s Not Like Anyone Else!
He Is ????, All the Time!”

We’re missing one word. Here’s the hint to what the missing word is. It says: “It’s a word that means all places? It rhymes with “teddy bear.”

Can you guess? It’s “Everywhere.”

So the Bible Truth we are learning today is:

(Uncover answer from bottom of sign, show it to them and say:)

“Can Anybody Tell Me What the LORD Is Like?
He’s Not Like Anyone Else!
He Is EVERYWHERE, All the Time!”

And here is what this Bible Truth means:

(read the meaning off of the back of the sign, say:)

How many places can you be at once? Can you be here with us and out on the playground at the same time? Can you hear what your parents are saying in the kitchen and what the king in a faraway country is saying at the same time? No, you can’t and neither can I!

But God is very different from us. He is everywhere, all the time. He is with you and me right here. He is with your friends and family in their homes and at work. He is even with all the people who live far away in other parts of the world.... and all at the same time! There is nowhere we can go, where God will not be, too. He sees everything everyone is doing, all the time. He is always there to comfort us, to help us, and to save us, when we trust Jesus as our Savior.

“O LORD, you have searched me and known me! You know when I sit down and when I rise up; you discern my thoughts from afar...and are acquainted with all my ways... Where shall I go from your Spirit? Or where shall I flee from your presence? If I ascend to heaven, you are there! If I make my bed in Sheol, you are there! If I take the wings of the morning and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea, even there your hand shall lead me, and your right hand shall hold me.”

Psalm 139:1-3, 7-10, ESV

Bible Truth 4 Bible Verse

Remove the Bible Verse Picture from the "Bible" folder and hold it up for all the children to see, then say:

Psalms 139:1-3,7-10 tells us:

Psalms 139:1-3,7-10, ESV

"O LORD, you have searched me and known me! You know when I sit down and when I rise up; you discern my thoughts from afar...and are acquainted with all my ways... Where shall I go from your Spirit? Or where shall I flee from your presence? If I ascend to heaven, you are there! If I make my bed in Sheol, you are there! If I take the wings of the morning and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea, even there your hand shall lead me, and your right hand shall hold me."

Learn a Little: "O LORD... You are acquainted with all my ways."

What does that mean?

These verses tell us that God is everywhere, all the time. There is nowhere we can flee from God's Spirit. Everywhere we are, He is, too. God knows us inside and out. He hears all of our prayers. He will help and protect those who trust in Him, no matter where they are. He will always be guiding them according to His perfect plans. Ask Him to help you trust in Him!

"We've said our Bible verse, now let's sing it!"

Where Shall I Go?

Psalms 139:7-10

DDD ESV Songs 4, track 27

Where shall I go from your Spirit? (No where!)
Where shall I flee from your presence? (No where!)
If I ascend to heaven, you are there!
If I make my bed in Sheol, you are there!
If I take the wings of the morn,
Dwell in the utmost parts of the sea,
Even there your hand shall lead me,
Your right hand shall hold me.
Where shall I go from your Spirit? (No where!)
Where shall I flee from your presence? (No where!)
Psalm One-thirty-nine, seven through ten.

The Case of the God Who Would Never Leave Genesis 27-28

Detective Dan's Listening Assignment #1

1. Who ran away from home? Why?
2. Who was the God who didn't leave him? Why was it so amazing that He didn't leave him?

Detective Dan's Listening Assignment #2

Psalm 139:1-3, ESV

"O LORD, you have searched me and known me! You know when I sit down and when I rise up; you discern my thoughts from afar...and are acquainted with all my ways."

1. Who went far away from his home?
2. How did the LORD show him that He was still with him, guiding him and helping him?

(more listening and discussion questions are included in the curriculum at praisefactory.org)

I. Jacob was up to his tricky tricks again, and what big, tricky tricks they were! Jacob had already tricked his big brother, Esau, out of the special, firstborn gift he was supposed to get from their father.

And now, Jacob wanted to trick their father into giving him the special, firstborn-blessing Esau was supposed to get from him, too. But time was running out. Jacob needed to think fast, if he was to get Esau's blessing.

Jacob needed to think fast, if he was to get Esau's blessing.

2. Their father, Isaac, was a very old man now. Soon, he would die. Before he died, Isaac would give each of his sons a blessing.

Isaac called for Esau first. Esau was the oldest son in the family. Isaac would give him the best blessing—the special, firstborn blessing. (That’s what fathers did back then.)

“Esau, come here. I want to give you my special, firstborn blessing,” Isaac told him. “But first, go hunting and bring me back some meat and make it into my favorite stew,” Isaac said.

3. Esau happily obeyed. He picked up his bow and arrows, and set off across the fields. He hoped God would help him find good food for his father quickly. How he was looking forward to getting that special, firstborn blessing!

Rebekah, their mother, hurried to Jacob with the news. She wanted Jacob to have that best blessing. It would take tricky tricks to get it. Could Rebekah and Jacob trick Isaac into giving Jacob the firstborn blessing instead?

It would take tricky tricks to get it. Could Rebekah and Jacob trick Isaac into giving Jacob the firstborn blessing instead?

4. This wasn't going to be easy. You see, Esau and Jacob might have been brothers (they were even twins!), but they were very, very different, as their father, Isaac, knew.

Esau had very hairy arms and legs, but Jacob had silky smooth skin. Jacob and Esau's voices were very different, too. Esau loved to work and hunt outdoors. He smelled of the fresh air and the fields. Jacob loved to stay near the family tent. He helped their mother, Rebekah, cook and do other chores, so he smelled more like smoke from the fire and the food they cooked over it.

5. Yes, it was going to take a very good tricky trick to fool Isaac into thinking Jacob was really Esau.

Before long, they had come up with just the trick... and it all depended on Isaac's bad eyes. Here's what they did: Jacob helped Rebekah make Isaac's favorite stew.

Rebekah helped Jacob dress up in Esau's best clothes. She helped him put hairy goat's fur on his neck and hands. Now, Jacob would have the food Isaac thought Esau would bring. Now, Jacob would smell like Esau and feel hairy like Esau.

Would this be enough to fool father Isaac? Jacob and Rebekah hoped so.

6. While Esau was still hunting far from the tents, Jacob put his tricky trick into action. He filled up a bowl with his mother's yummy goat stew. He went to his father, pretending to be his brother: "Here I am, father. It's your son, Esau," Jacob lied.

7. Jacob thought this was odd: “Hmmm... Esau has come back from hunting very quickly! Too quickly. And this voice. It doesn't sound like Esau. It sounds like Jacob! Could this be Jacob, up to another of his tricky tricks?” Isaac wondered.

“Are you really my son, Esau?” Isaac asked the son standing before him.

“Yes, Father, it is I,” Jacob lied. “The LORD helped me get some meat quickly. Eat your delicious stew and bless me. Please, bless me!”

8. Something still didn't seem right to Isaac. Since his old eyes didn't work very well, Isaac decided to use his nose and hands to make sure this was really Esau.

Isaac stretched out his arm and placed it on his son. He felt lots of hair. Yes, this felt like Esau all right! Then, Isaac leaned over to kiss his son and smell his clothes. They smelled like the outdoors. Yes, this son certainly smelled like Esau.

Now, Isaac was sure. This really WAS Esau! So, Isaac stretched out his arm, put his hand on his son's head, and gave him the special, firstborn blessing.

q. Ha! Jacob's tricky trick had worked! Their father had given him the best blessing! How pleased Jacob was, as he hurried away from Isaac's tent!

Jacob was very happy, but soon, there was SOMEONE ELSE who wasn't happy at all. SOMEONE who came back from hunting and went to his father with his favorite stew, only to find out that his brother had already been there with his tricky trick. Can you guess who it was? It was Esau... the REAL Esau!

10. Esau was FURIOUS! Jacob had already tricked him out of their father's firstborn gift. And now, Jacob had tricked him out of their father's special, firstborn blessing, too! BOTH of their father's best gifts, that should have been his, were both GONE!

So, now it was Esau's turn for a tricky trick. As soon as old, father Isaac died, Esau would get rid of Jacob and take back those best gifts for himself! That would take care of Jacob, once and for all!

II. There was only one thing Jacob could do: run away. But, to where?

Rebekah had an idea: “Run away to the faraway country where my family lives. They will take care of you, and you can find a wife there,” she told Jacob. Isaac agreed. This was the best plan.

12. Jacob packed up his little bundle of things and set off at once.

13. The trip to Rebekah's family was long and hard. Jacob had to walk many days through the lonely wilderness to get there. The good, green hills became dusty, dry land, the farther away Jacob travelled. Each day, the hot sun beat down on him. Each day, he had to find his own water and food. And each day, he could easily get lost in all that wilderness.

14. The nights could be as hard as the days. It was so very dark and Jacob was so all alone. The desert-y wilderness could be windy and cold at night. The ground was bumpy and hard. Jacob had only a rock for a pillow and his coat for a blanket. Ooh... ouch... brrrr... Cover up, Jacobi!

The desert-y wilderness was home to lots of creepy, crawly bugs. Spiders, scorpions and other little wiggling, biting creatures that could wriggle their way up inside his clothes and bite him as he lay on the ground. Wriggle... wriggle... nip... nip... snap... snap... Watch out, Jacobi!

15. Danger could be anywhere. There were lions and bears and other creatures around. These were animals with hungry tummies and sharp teeth. They prowled around in the dark, looking for food to eat. Roar... growl... chomp, chomp... Hide, Jacob! There might even be bad guys who could sneak up on Jacob and take his bundle of things. Whoo, whoo... ha, ha! Beware, Jacob!

Jacob had never been away from home like this before, so very all alone, in the middle of nowhere. Who would be with him, as he traveled so far from home? Could anyone help him?

16. Yes, there was Someone who could. The LORD! He is the God who is everywhere, all the time.

The LORD had been there and seen Jacob trick their father and take his brother's special firstborn blessing. The LORD had been there and seen when Esau wanted to kill Jacob and Jacob had to run away. And now, the LORD was right there, out in that deep, dark wilderness, where Jacob camped that night.

17. Now, Jacob's tricky tricks were very bad things. Jacob deserved nothing but the LORD's punishment for them. After all, the LORD is good. He hates wrong-doing... and Jacob had most certainly done wrong!

But the LORD is also so very kind and merciful to sinners, even sinners like Jacob. And many times, the LORD takes very bad things and does very good things, things that we could never, ever deserve.

And so it was that the LORD chose to be very kind and merciful to Jacob. The LORD chose to use the bad things that Jacob did to do some very good things. Things that would one day bring good to all people, everywhere... even to people like you and me.

18. So right there, in the middle of nowhere, in that deep darkness, on that cold ground, with that hard, rock pillow. Right there, with those bugs wriggling, those wild animals prowling, (and maybe even bad guys lurking), the LORD helped Jacob fall asleep. And as Jacob slept, the LORD gave him a dream about the good things He would do through Jacob and his family.

19. In his dream, Jacob saw a VERY tall ladder. It was so tall that it stretched from the ground, all the way up to heaven.

And who did Jacob see climbing up and down that giant ladder?
Lots of God's angels! Amazing! But even more amazing than all those angels ON the ladder, was who Jacob saw at the very TOP of the

20. In the dream, the LORD spoke to Jacob: “I am the LORD, the God of your father, Isaac, and your grandfather, Abraham. I made big promises to them, and now I’m making them to you, too.”

“The land you are sleeping on, I will give to you and all your family after you. Your family is going to grow and grow and grow until it’s so big, you can’t even count everyone.

“And one day, I will bless the whole world through your family.” the LORD said. (The LORD was promising the Savior, Jesus, to be born into Jacob’s family one day. He would be the blessing to the whole world.)

The land you are sleeping on, I will give to you and all your family after you. Your family is going to grow and grow and grow until it's so big, you can't even count ever yone. And one day, I will bless the whole world through your family." the LORD said. (The LORD was promising the Savior, Jesus, to be born into Jacob's family one day. He would be the blessing to the whole world.)

21. “Jacob, you may be far away from your family, all alone in the dark; but, I am with you,” the LORD told him. “I will take care of you wherever you go. I will bring you back to this land one day. I will do everything I’ve promised you,” the LORD said to Jacob.

Jacob woke up from the dream. He was excited and a little scared. “Surely the LORD is in this place, and I did not know it. How awesome it is! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven,” he exclaimed.

22. Jacob never wanted to forget what had happened that night. So the next morning, he took the stone that had been his pillow and he stood it up on end like a tower. Then he poured oil on the stone as a sign that God had done something special. He named the place, “Bethel,” which means “House of God.”

Then he poured oil on the stone as a sign that God had done something special. He named the place, "Bethel," which means "House of God."

23. Then, Jacob made a big promise to the LORD:

“If You will be with me and will keep me as I go far away from home. If You will give me food to eat and clothes to wear, so that I come home one day to my father’s house safely, and with no one mad at me, then You shall be my God. And this stone, which I have set up as a tower, shall be a special place where people come to worship You and meet with You. And I will give You worship gifts from everything You give me.” Jacob promised.

The LORD was pleased with Jacob’s promise and accepted it.

24. Then Jacob picked up his bundle and went on his way.

Day after day, he traveled on through the desert-y wilderness-- under the hot sun, looking for food and water, and trusting that he wasn't lost. Night after night, he lay down in the deep darkness, on the cold ground, with the creepy, crawlies wriggling, the growling, animals prowling, and maybe even the bad guys lurking near by.

Jacob went farther and farther away from home and everything he had known, but now everything was better. Why?

25. Now, Jacob knew who was with him: the LORD, the God who was everywhere, all the time. HE was always with Jacob. HE would make sure Jacob had everything he needed. HE would keep all of His promises to Jacob.

And He did! The LORD helped Jacob get all the way to his mother's family in the faraway country. He blessed Jacob with a big family and many good things. He worked inside Jacob, too. He changed Jacob into a man who loved Him and trusted in Him.

And at just the right time, the LORD led Jacob and his family safely home. Even Esau was happy to see him!

He was called Emmanuel, God with us. He came to give us the greatest blessing of all: forgiveness of our sins, when we turn from our sins and trust in Him as our Savior.

If we do, the LORD will be OUR God who is with US, everywhere, all the time, bringing good to us. No matter where we go or what we do, He will be right there with us: loving us, taking care of us, and working inside of our hearts, helping us to love Him and trust in Him.

How kind the LORD has been to us through Jacob and his family!

The Case of the God Who Would Never Leave Genesis 27-28

SOLVED

Detective Dan's Listening Assignment #1

1. Who ran away from home? Why? Jacob ran away from home because he cheated his brother out of their father's special blessing.
2. Who was the God who didn't leave him? Why was it so amazing that He didn't leave him? The LORD was the God who didn't leave Jacob because the LORD hates that the LORD didn't leave Jacob had done a very bad thing by wrong-doing (sin) and Jacob had done a special, firstborn blessing.

For You and Me:
Isn't the LORD amazing! He is good and He hates wrong-doing (sin); but, He is so merciful, too. The LORD stayed with Jacob and promised to bless him. He changed Jacob into a man who loved Him and lived for Him. The LORD even used Jacob to bless us, too. How? By sending Jesus through Jacob's family to be the Savior for the sins of God's people. When we turn away from our sins and trust in Jesus, the LORD will forgive our sins, too. He will make us His special people who He will bless every day of our lives. And one day, He will take us to live with Him forever. That will be the greatest blessing of all!

Detective Dan's Listening Assignment #2

Psalms 139:1-3, ESV

"O LORD, you have searched me and known me! You know when I sit down and when I rise up; you discern my thoughts from afar...and are acquainted with all my ways."

1. Who went far away from his home? Jacob did.
2. How did the LORD show him that He was still with him, guiding him and helping him? The LORD helped Jacob find the way to the country where his mother used to live. He took care of Jacob while he lived there, and then He brought Jacob back home. He worked inside of Jacob, changing him into a man who loved and trusted in Him. He helped Esau forgive Jacob, and He blessed Jacob with all of the good things He promised him.

For You and Me:

The LORD knew Jacob's thoughts. He was familiar with all of his ways. He knew Jacob was a sinner and did not deserve His loving-kindness. But the LORD treated Jacob better than he deserved. The LORD loved Jacob and helped him. He took care of his needs and changed his life into one that wanted to love and obey Him. Like Jacob, we are sinners, too. The LORD offers His loving-kindness to us, too. He wants us to turn away from our sins and trust in Jesus as our Savior. He can be the God who is taking care of us as His special people, everywhere, all the time, too. Ask Him to help you!

Can Anybody Tell Me What the LORD Is Like?
He's Not Like Anyone Else...
He Is Everywhere, All the Time!

The Gospel

Jacob deserved God's punishment for his sins, but God forgave him and became Jacob's God. God changed Jacob's heart and took care of him his whole life.

God promised to bless all peoples through Jacob's family. He did this through Jesus. Jesus lived a perfect life and gave it up as the full payment for sins when He died on the cross. On the third day, He rose from the dead, showing He had beaten sin and death for God's people.

Now all who turn away from their sins and trust in Jesus as their Savior are saved! They are God's special people, and He will be with them, doing them good, everywhere they go. He will help and care for them each day, then bring them home to live in heaven with Him forever. We can be God's people, too,

by trusting in Jesus as our Savior!

A Prayer

A We praise You, God, that You are the great and awesome God. There is no god like you. You are everywhere, all the time. You see everything there is to see.

C God, You ARE always with us. You DO see everything. Nothing is hidden from You. We know You see us every time we disobey You We need a Savior! Please forgive us through Jesus!

T Thank You, God, for always being with us wherever we are. Thank You that even when we feel very alone, You are there. We can always turn to You and ask You for help.

S Help us to turn away from our sins and trust in Jesus as our Savior. Help us to live to please You as You watch us. Help us to depend on You to take care of us.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.
