The Big Question we are investigating today is Big Question Number 16:

What Will Happen When Jesus Comes Back?
and the Answer is:
God Will Make Everything New!

Meaning:

Jesus is coming back one day. What a day it will be! This old world and its ways will come to an end. God will destroy it and sin and death with it. He will create a new, perfect world for His people to live in with Him forever.

It will be a beautiful, happy place where there will never be anything sad or bad in it...ever! God's people will live there with Jesus as their king. Here on earth, they know God in their hearts; but there, they will see Him face-to-face. Think of your favorite thing to do. Life with Jesus will be better than this. Think of your favorite place to be. Life with Jesus in the new world will be better than that! Think of your favorite person to be with. Living with Jesus will be far better than that! There will never be anything better than living with God like this!

What a wonderful day that will be for God's people! What a wonderful day that will be for us, too, if we turn away from our sins and trust in Jesus as our Savior!

Jesus Will Judge
All People ???? !

HINT: This is another word for treating everyone right.
It starts with an "F" and it rhymes with "barely."

ANSWER:

Jesus Will Judge All People FARLY !

Revealing the Bible Truth We Are Learning

Hold up the front side for the children to see. Cover up the answer, written along the bottom, and say:

“What Will Happen When Jesus Comes Back?
God Will Make Everything New!
Jesus Will Judge All People ????!”

We’re missing one word. Here’s the hint to what the missing word is. It says: “This is another word for treating everyone right. It starts with an “F” and it rhymes with “barely.”

Can you guess? It’s “fairly.”

So the Bible Truth we are learning today is:

(uncover answer from bottom of sign, show it to them and say:)

“What Will Happen When Jesus Comes Back?
God Will Make Everything New!
Jesus Will Judge All People FAIRLY!”

And here is what this Bible Truth means:

(read the meaning off of the back of the sign, say:)

When Jesus comes back, He will gather everyone who has ever lived before Him to be judged fairly. All the people who are alive when Jesus comes back, will stand before Him. All the people who were already dead will come out of the places they are buried and appeared before Him, too. Millions and millions, billions and billions of people.

There will be more people than WE can know or count standing before Jesus on that day. But they won’t be too many for Jesus. Jesus is God’s Son. He knows everyone completely. Nothing is hidden from Him. And on that day, Jesus will sit on His throne (king’s chair) and will judge all of us. What does it mean to judge? It means that Jesus will think fairly about what each person did with the life God gave them. Did they love God and serve Him? Did they love others? How did they use the good gifts God gave them? And most importantly, did they turn away from their sins and trust in Jesus as their Savior... or, did they refuse Him?

It will be the saddest of days for all who refused to turn away from their sins and trust in Jesus as their Savior. The day for forgiveness and mercy will be over. Now, they will be separated from God and everything good forever. Satan and all the angels who rebelled against God will receive this final, terrible punishment, too. Oh, how I wish that everyone would turn away from their sins and trust in Jesus instead of receiving God’s punishment!

But what about God’s people? How will Jesus fairly think about them? Didn’t they disobey God, too? Shouldn’t they be separated from God, too? Yes, they did disobey God, too. Yes, they deserve to be separated from God; but instead, they will receive wonderful, eternal life with God on that day! Why? Because they turned away from their sins and asked for God’s forgiveness. They trusted in Jesus as their Savior, and He paid for their sins when He died on the cross. Because of Jesus, this will be a day of praise for them. Jesus will reward them for the good works they did in His name. And best of all, they will get to live happily with God in special closeness forever. We can be ready for that day, too, if we turn away from our sins and trust in Jesus as our Savior. This is how we become God’s people.

“Behold, I am coming soon, bringing my recompense with me, to repay each one for what he has done. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end.”
Relevation 22:12-13, ESV

Revelation 22:12-13 tells us:

Revelation 22:12-13, ESV

"Behold, I am coming soon, bringing my recompense with me, to repay each one for what he has done. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end."

Learn a Little: "I am coming soon to repay each one for what he has done."

What does that mean?

One day, Jesus will come back. He will bring an end to sin and death. He will fairly judge everyone. Oh, what an awful day it will be for those who did not turn away from their sins and trust in Jesus! There will be no good reward for them. Only God's punishment for their sins. How sad!

But the day Jesus comes back will be a wonderful day of celebration for God's people! He will reward the good things that God did through them. And because they did turn away from their sins and trusted in Him as their Savior, they will go to live with Him forever in the new heaven and earth He will create for them. We will be there on that day, too. It can be a day of celebration for us, too, if we turn away from our sins and trust in Jesus as our Savior.

2. What are the two, big books? What will He do with the two, big books?

Detective Dan's Listening Assignment #2

Revelation 22:12, ESV

"Behold, I am coming soon, bringing my recompense with me, to repay each one for what he has done."

1. Who is coming back?
2. What will He do He comes back?

(more listening and discussion questions are included in the curriculum at praisefactory.org)

I. "Who is this Jesus?" people wondered. "He talks about God like no teacher we've ever heard! He heals sick people with just His word! He raises the dead people back to life!"

2. "He prays, and little pieces of fish and bread become enough to feed huge crowds of people! We've never seen anyone do such amazing things by God's power. Who is this Jesus?" they asked.

3. "He's John the Baptist come back to life," some people answered. John the Baptist was a godly man who preached about God but had been captured and killed by King Herod. These people believed God had brought John back to life as Jesus. Was THAT who Jesus was? Jesus WAS a godly man. He DID preach about God. But, no. He wasn't John come back to life. Jesus was His own person, and He was Someone far greater than John.

4. "Jesus is a great prophet, like Elijah, from the old days," other people said. Prophets were people God sent to tell the people of Israel how to obey Him. Was THAT who Jesus was? Jesus HAD been sent by God. And like the prophets, Jesus DID tell the people how to obey God. But, no! That's not who Jesus was either. He was Someone far greater than just a prophet.

5. Well, if He wasn't John come back to life, or a prophet, just like in the old days, then who WAS Jesus? It was time for Jesus to ask His twelve, close followers, the disciples.

6. For three years, Jesus had been showing and telling who He was with the marvelous things He did and said. Now, it was almost time for Him to die. So, Jesus took His disciples up to Caesarea Philippi, the greatest worship place of fake gods in Israel, to a temple-cave called the "The Gates of Hell." He had something very important to talk to them about.

7. As they neared that temple-cave, where God's enemy, Satan, seemed so strong, Jesus used a question to make it clear to His disciples the REAL answer about Himself. And, He would help them understand what that answer meant for His life and theirs. So, Jesus turned to His disciples, and asked, "Who do YOU say that I am?"

8. Peter spoke up right away: "You are the Messiah, the Christ, the Son of the living God, sent to save us." Peter believed Jesus was the great Forever King God promised to send. This king was to rule the world God's way and get rid of God's enemies --those who do not want Him to be king and will not turn from disobeying Him. Was THAT who Jesus was? Did Peter have it right?

9. "You are right, Peter. I am the Messiah, the Christ, God's Forever King," Jesus replied. "God, My Father, has given you this faith to know who I am and believe in Me. And Your faith is just the beginning. God will give this faith to many, and they will become God's people, the Church. And not even God's enemy, Satan, or the "Gates of Hell" will defeat it," Jesus said.

10. Jesus was stronger than even the strongest enemy. He was why His Church would endure. He would beat sin and death AND Satan for them!

II. "But shhh, don't tell anyone who I am just yet," Jesus told His disciples. "Before I rule as king, I must be taken by My enemies to suffer and die on the cross. And on the third day, I will be raised from the dead," Jesus explained.

12. Peter didn't like what Jesus said. "No, Lord. This will not happen to You!" Peter scolded. Peter was sure Jesus had it wrong. Enemies weren't supposed to hurt God's Forever King! No! HE was supposed get rid of God's enemies! HE was supposed to bring an end to sin! HE was supposed to be worshiped by all! The great, Forever King shouldn't suffer and die! He should live Forever! Jesus had it WRONG!

13. But it was Peter who was wrong. "Stop saying this, Peter!" Jesus replied. "You might think you're trying to protect Me, but you're talking like Satan, God's great enemy. You are tempting Me to disobey God's good plan," Jesus told Peter. "I MUST suffer and die on the cross to save God's people," Jesus insisted.

14. "If you're going to follow Me, you must choose to obey God's plan, too," Jesus told the listening crowd. "You must take up your cross and follow Me. Following Me will be hard. You will have to say "no" to sin, including some of the things the rest of the world enjoys. You may even lose your life to follow Me. But you will gain something even better: life with God forever," Jesus told them.

15. "I've come to the world this time to suffer and die. But I'll come back again as the great, glorious Forever King over all. Everyone will see Me as I come down from heaven, shiny with the bright glory of God," Jesus said. "The angels of heaven will be with Me when I burst through the sky. Then, I will judge all people," Jesus told them. "I will give out last and fair punishments to all, according to what they have done," He explained.

16. What will the Great Day of Judgment be like? What are the last and fair punishments that Jesus will give out? Years later, Jesus gave John –another of His disciples-- a look at what it will be like. John wrote down what he saw in the Bible book we call Revelation. “I saw a great, white throne with Jesus seated on it. Everyone who has ever lived stood before the throne,” John wrote.

17. "Then I saw great books opened up. In one book was written what each person had done in his life. This was the Book of Deeds. Jesus judged each person fairly, according to what each had done," John wrote.

18. "Those who had chosen to keep on disobeying God and did not trust in Jesus as their Savior were sent out of God's presence forever. How sad it will be for these people!" John said.

19. "But there was another book. It was called the Book of Life," John wrote. "In this book were written the names of all of God's people --all who had turned away from disobeying God and trusted in Jesus as their Savior," he explained.

20. "These people were sinners, too, but there will be no punishment for their sins. Instead, they will be rewarded as if they had lived the perfect life that Jesus had lived. Why? Because Jesus paid for their sins already when He suffered and died on the cross."

21. "These people will never leave God's presence. They will live with Him, enjoying His Perfect Wonderfulness as His dearly-loved people forever," John wrote. "There will no more sickness, sadness, sin, or death for them. Only happiness forever." Oh, what a day that will be, when Jesus comes back as the Forever King and judges all people fairly. Only God knows exactly when that day will come, but we can be ready for it, whenever it is. How? By turning away from our sins and trusting in Jesus as our Savior. Thank You, Jesus, for being merciful Savior now, so we can enjoy You as our good, Forever King on that day!

"The Case of the Two, Big Books" Matthew 16, Mark 8:27-38, Revelation 20:11-15

SOLVED

Detective Dan's Listening Assignment #1

1. Who will come back at the end of time? Jesus will.
2. What are the two, big books? What will He do with the two, big books? The Book of Deeds is the book that tells about every person's life—everything they've done, both good and bad. The Book of Life has the names of all who turned away from their sins and trusted in Jesus as their Savior. Jesus will judge all people fairly with these books. He will give them their final reward or punishment, according to how they have lived and whether they have asked God to forgive their sins through Jesus.

For You and Me:

It can be scary to think about Jesus coming back and judging us for what we've done. The good news is that all who turn away from their sins and trust in Jesus as their Savior can rejoice on that day! Yes, they've done many bad things, but they are forgiven through Jesus. God can help us be ready for that day. He can forgive our sins and make us His people when we turn away from our sins and trust in Jesus as our Savior.

The good news is that all who turn away from their sins and trust in Jesus as their Savior can rejoice on that day! Yes, they've done many bad things, but they are forgiven through Jesus. What Will Happen When Jesus Comes Back?

God Will Make Everything New...

Jesus Will Judge All People Fairly!

The Gospel

How merciful God has been to us! Even though we have all disobeyed Him and all deserve His punishment, He sent Jesus to be our Savior. Jesus lived a perfect life and offered it as full payment for the sins of God's people when He died on the cross. On the third day, He rose from the dead in victory.

Now, all who turn away from their sins and trust in Jesus as their Savior will be forgiven. They are God's people. On the day Jesus gives out punishment for sin, there will be no punishment for them. Jesus already took it for them on the cross. They will live forever with God in the wonderful, new world God is making for them. We can be God's people, too, when we turn away from our sins and trust in Jesus as our Savior. Ask Him to help you. He loves to!

A Prayer

A We praise You, Jesus, for being the good Judge who will give out fair rewards and punishments to all people at the end of time.

C Jesus, we know that we are all sinners. We have all disobeyed God's laws. We deserve Your judgement on our sins. We need You to be our Savior.

T Thank You, Jesus, for dying on the cross to save all who turn away from their sins and trust in You as their Savior. Thank You that You will judge all who do, according to Your perfect life, not their own. If we trust in You, we don't have to fear Your punishment on that day, either. We can look forward, in excitement, to life with You forever.

S Work in our hearts! Help us all to turn away from our sins and trust in You as our Savior. Help us to do good things with the gifts You have given us. Help us to love You and love others. Come back soon, Jesus!

In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.
