Song

"Jesus always obeyed God, His Father, even when it was very hard. Many times, Jesus was tempted to disobey God, but He never did. He was perfect. It's so good that Jesus didn't sin. Only His perfect life would be enough to be full payment for God's people's sins. On the cross, Jesus gave His life for theirs. Then, on Day Three, Jesus rose from the dead, proving He'd saved them. We can be God's people, too, if we turn from our sins and trust in Jesus as our Savior."

Something to Grow Into

I. Long ago in Bethlehem, baby Jesus was born. Every baby is special, but there was something that made Jesus the most special baby of all. The angels sang the good news: This was God's Son, come to save God's people from their sins, just as God promised He would.

Perfect Law Keeper

to Be the

Perfect Payment for Sins

2. Jesus would have to do something that no one had ever done, if He were to save God's people: He would have to never disobey God. He would have to always keep all of God's laws. Only if Jesus was perfectly good could His life save them. Nothing less than perfect would do.

3. God's great enemy, Satan, wanted Jesus to fail. He didn't want God's people to be saved. He wanted to spoil God's good plans. He came to Jesus, out in the wilderness, to tempt Him to disobey God.

4. "Worship me instead of God, and I'll give you the world," Satan promised. "Everyone will worship You if you bow down to me." But Jesus said, "Go away, Satan! I'm only going to worship God, My Father." Jesus would be the perfect Savior. He would keep to God's good plan.

5. Satan wasn't the only one who tempted Jesus to disobey God. Sometimes, people said hateful lies to Jesus. "You aren't God's Son! You are just like Satan, God's enemy! You do bad things, and You should die," they told Him.

6. It would be easy to sin and hate them back, but Jesus did not. He kept loving them. He taught them truths from God's Word, so they might turn away from their sins and trust in Him as their Savior. Jesus wanted to please God and be the perfect Savior for God's people.

7. Crowds of people came to Jesus. "Heal us, teach us, Jesus!" they pleaded. Sometimes, Jesus would get so tired from caring for them. But He never got grumpy and sent them away. He kept on loving them. Jesus wanted to please God and be the perfect Savior for God's people.

8. Sometimes, people wanted to make Jesus their king. Jesus could have a big palace and lots of people to serve Him. That would be much easier than suffering and dying on the cross, as God planned. But Jesus said, "No." He kept to God's plan. This was the only way to save God's people.

9. Even on the cross, Jesus' enemies tempted Jesus to disobey God. "You say you're God's Son. Prove it! Let HIM save you! Come down from the cross, if that's who you really are!" they shouted at Him. But Jesus stayed on the cross. Only there, could He save God's people.

10. "It is finished," Jesus said, as died on the cross. And so, it was. Jesus had done it! He had never disobeyed God, from the day He was born to the day He died. And there on that cross, He had given His perfect life as the full payment for the sins of God's people. He had saved them.

II. Jesus died that day, but on Day Three, He rose from the dead, proving He had really beaten sin and death for God's people. We can become God's people, too, if we turn away from our sins and trust in Jesus as our Savior. Ask Him to help you.

Something to Grow Into

What Did Jesus Come to Do?
Jesus Came to Bring Us to God...
He Never, Ever Disobeyed God!

The Gospel

We have all disobeyed God. We deserve His punishment, not to be His people. Yet God, in His mercy, sent Jesus to make the way for people like us to become God's people. He came and lived a perfect life. He never disobeyed God. Then, on the cross, He gave His perfect life as the full payment for the sins of God's people.

Jesus was died and buried that day. But on Day Three, He rose from the dead, proving He had beaten sin and death for God's people.

Now, all who turn away from their sins and trust in Jesus as their Savior are forgiven their sins. They get to be God's people forever. This is how we can become God's people, too. Ask God to help you.

He loves to do this!

Big Question #9 Hymn

To God Be the Glory

So loved He the world that He gave us His Son.
Who yielded His life, an atonement for sin,
And opened the lifegate that all may go in.

Refrain

Praise the Lord, praise the Lord,
Let the earth hear His voice.
Praise the Lord, praise the Lord,
Let the people rejoice.
O, come to the Father through Jesus the Son,
And give Him the glory,
great things He hath done.

Big Question 9 Praise Song

Blessed Be the Name

All praise to Him, who reigns above,
In majesty supreme.
Who gave His Son for man to die,
That He might man redeem!

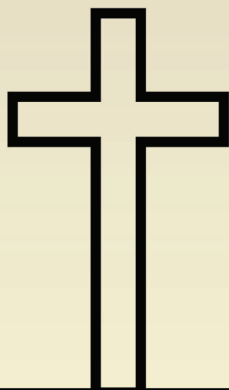

Blessed be the name,
Blessed be the name,
Blessed be the name of the Lord;
Blessed be the name,
Blessed be the name,
Blessed be the name of the Lord.

“Let’s praise the Lord sending Jesus to bring people like us to God!”

The Gospel Song (Short)

We've all disobeyed God's good ways,
But God sent His Son to save,
All who turn back to Him, and pray:
"Jesus, be my Savior,
Take all my sins away."

This is the gospel,
This is God's good news:
Jesus died on the cross,
Then on the 3rd day...
He rose from the dead.
Ask Him to be your Savior, too.
Ask Him to be your Savior, too!

The Gospel Song (Full)

Refrain:

What is the gospel? G-O-S-P-E-L?
What is the gospel? Can anybody tell me?
What is the gospel? Yes, I know what it is!
Salvation through faith in Christ,
That's what the gospel is.

"G" is for God, our good King and Creator,
"O", we should obey Him,
but instead we're disobeyers,
So "S", we need a Savior to save us from our sins,
That Savior is Jesus, who "P" took the punishment.
Yes, Jesus died upon the cross, the perfect sacrifice,
Then on Day Three, He rose again
To prove He'd won the fight,
And now "E" everyone who repents & believes in Him,
He gives "E-L" eternal life: forever life with Him.

"Let's sing about the gospel: God's best good news that we can become His people through Jesus."
